the Balkans and in Sicily. He was stationed in Athens, Tripeli and Belgrade. He was captured by the British in Carinthia in May 1945 and was in PW camps at Kellerberg and St. Martin, near Villach. He returned to Vienna in March 1946.

- c. Subject was employed by Die Presse and he also published two menthly Catholic magazines: Wort und Wahrheit and Orbis Catholicus, printed by the Verlag Herder, Vienna 1. Co-editor of these two magazines was Otto Mauer. Subject is said to be a stannch Catholic with contacts in the Vatican.
- 3. Other Headquarters files indicate the following:

(1):

- a. In January 1945 Subject was named a member of the sub-committee on press and radio of the Provisional Austrian Mational Committee.
- b. In November 1947 Subject was proposed for operational use in the Grandlite Project as Grandlite/10. No further details are given in the Grandlite files, or elsewhere, concerning Subject and his use (if any) in the project.
- c. In Becember 1949 Subject was referred to as a leading functionary of the Cathelic Action.
- d. In March 1950 Subject was recorded as a top-level source of GROSSBARN (also referred to as URAGE) through GC/2 who supplied information on political affairs and the Cathelic Action. At the time GC/2 was terminated in January 1953, he stated that Subject may have surmised GC/2's GEFOKE intelligence connection.
- e. In July 1950 Subject was depicted as having influenced Fritz Molden in the watering down of an editorial in Die Presse against attempts on the part of the Austrian Papal Numeric toward unification and centralization of the Austrian Catholic Action.
- Subject is noted to be intimately acquainted with Dr. Otto Mamer, general secretary of the Catholic Action in Austria, and to be in contact with "Zink and Feligar" (sic).
- g. On 28 September 1955 Subject was a member of a seven-man delegation of Austrian journalists which left for Moscow at the invitation of the Soviet Society for Cultural Relations.

4. In addition to the above traces, it was subsequently reported (EAVW 6908 of 23 December 1955) that Schmimeister as a GRCSSBAHN subscure was witting of the fact that his information on high-level CeVP and Cathelic Action affairs was used for intelligence purposes. It was noted that no PRQ data was collected by GRCSSBAHN on Subject since the former "tended to record peripheral contacts as sources".
